

PAVO and SBVO 2010

pavo.org* or through sbvo website link

2009-2010 Year ends MARCH 1st, 2010

NEW MEMBERSHIP APPLICATIONS DUE BY JUNE
DUES $45.00 payable to sbvo w/application

P.A.V.O. MISSION STATEMENT: The Professional Association of Volleyball Officials is dedicated to improving the quality of volleyball officiating for all rule codes and skill levels. P.A.V.O. strives to increase the number of competent officials through education and mentoring and promotes involvement in the governing bodies of other volleyball organizations.

P.A.V.O. Member Benefits:

- Subscription to the Official Word, a joint newsletter published five times a year in conjunction with USA volleyball
- NCAA Rules Interpretation newsletters, published two-three times a year
- Professional Liability insurance and secondary medical insurance
- Opportunity to take a written exam prior to the start of the women's collegiate volleyball season
- Opportunity to certify as a P.A.V.O. National Referee, the highest certification level available through this organization
- Discounted registration fees to the P.A.V.O. Annual Convention and training events like O.T.P. clinics and camps AND LINE JUDGE CERTIFICATION (NEW)
- Discounted from travel vendors (such as Hertz rental) and vendors of officiating supplies.
-

Purpose of PAVO:

- Providing the officials' perspective to rules writing bodies
- Developing officiating techniques
- Providing materials for training and rating officials
- Disseminating information about officiating
- Promoting the use of PAVO-rated officials
- Developing and maintaining professional and ethical conduct guidelines for volleyball officials
- Providing the organizational and administrative structure for the coordination of member boards
- Promoting standards with respect to fees, ratings and uniforms

Coming Soon-

Line Judge Certification clinic- March 14th, 2010

O.T.P. Clinics Summer months June-August 2010

Referee Training CAMPS – March-May 2010